Women4Peace 2028 to Host Inclusive Virtual Convention of States Screenings

Tompkins Cove, NY (March 8, 2025): Women4Peace 2028, a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting peace and understanding through dialogue and collaboration, today announced its plans to host a series of virtual screenings of the upcoming Convention of States. These screenings will be conducted in five major languages (Spanish, Mandarin Chinese, Arabic, Hindi, and English) and will feature asynchronous feedback mechanisms to ensure inclusivity and accessibility for all participants.

"We believe that the Convention of States is a critical opportunity to shape the future of our nation," said [Your Name], spokesperson for Women4Peace 2028. "By hosting these screenings and providing a platform for diverse voices to be heard, we hope to foster a more inclusive and engaging convention experience that truly reflects the diversity of our society."

The screenings will be made available on-demand, allowing participants to view the proceedings at their own pace and convenience. Feedback will be collected through online forums, surveys, and virtual town halls, ensuring that all voices are heard and considered.

Women4Peace 2028 is committed to upholding the principles of equality, transparency, and accountability throughout the convention process. The organization will work closely with delegates, experts, and community leaders to ensure that the screenings and feedback mechanisms are accessible and inclusive for all.
